Welcome to Rio Vista!

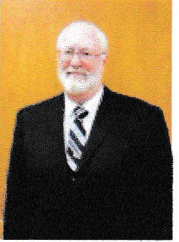

Thank you for joining our community. We hope that you come to enjoy the pleasant delta breeze, the serenity of the water that flows along the city's edge, and our community spirit. We are fortunate to live in a city that still holds onto its small town charm while providing essential services to our citizens.

Constance Boulware

We all know that joining a new community can be problematic. Everything from how to make sure your water and sewer bill are paid to how to get a local newspaper. We are a friendly community and want you to have a resource to call if you need some help. So call your City Council Member. We would be glad to help steer you in the right direction.

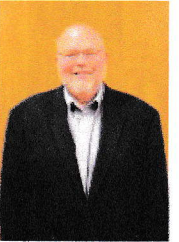

Rio Vista is a growing community and we are glad that you have chosen our City to call home.
